

---

---

Unit 3

Revolutions

---

---

Day 6

Starter March 6th or 7th

Make a list of everything you need to have done before next time. Are you missing work? Test corrections? What do you need to do to be ready to present and submit your project?

MLA

MLA is a very common format that is used in college. Stands for Modern Language Association.

- What font do I use?
- What size of font?
- Line spacing?
- What margins?
- What does your title look like?
- Header?
- How do I put my name on it?

MLA

- Font: Times New Roman
- Font size: 12 point font
- Line Spacing: Double
- 1 inch margins on all sides
- Title is centered and not larger or bolded
- Header with your last name and then the page number
- How to put your name on it?

Statement of Learning

5) Statement of Learning (10 points) (1 per student)

- A One page MLA Format (typed, double spaced, 12pt. font, Times New Roman Font) explanation must accompany your project. The following should be included:

- Why was this topic of interest to you?
- Specifically, what did you learn? What information was new to you?
- What surprised you the most about this topic?

 EVERY STUDENT NEEDS TO WRITE THEIR OWN
statement of learning. It is not a group effort. It is individual.

REVIEW: How to write a Bibliography

Author last name, first name. "Article Title." Website Name. Published Date.
Accessed Date. URL

Example:

Gilbert, Creighton E. "Michelangelo: Italian Artist." Encyclopedia Britannica.
Published February 27, 2017. Accessed February 28, 2018.
<https://www.britannica.com/biography/Michelangelo>

You can also use websites such as citationmachine.com, bibme.org or easybib.com

TO DO:

1. Statement of Learning
2. Finishing touches on Project
  - a. Anything not finished is homework
3. Printed out copies of bibliography and statement of learning
4. Practice Presentations

If you are late you will be marked off 50%
No excuses!!!!